THE WORLD WRITES ..A LETTER TO SANTA CLAUS

Dear Santa Claus:

This year I would like to have you fill minds and hearts instead of stockings. Mental and spiritual gifts, I am sure, will make for more genuine happiness than all the fur coats, cigars and jumping jacks you could pack into your bag!

Look over my list of Gifts and let me know what you think of the ideas—

COURAGE: There are those who have said I am a sick world and that the end is near. The fact is, I never felt better in my life. Old Doc Science says that I am good for at least another five hundred million years or so. But a lot of my people are mentally sick. They are suffering from fear. The best antidote for the poison of fear is courage. So put a liberal supply of courage, nerve and intestinal fortitude into the mental stockings of my people, this Christmas.

FAITH: You know the old saying that faith moves mountains. It is more powerful than that—it moves me. The World Many of my people have lost faith. The skies are clearing now and if everyone would get their faith back — faith in God and faith in man, we would soon be humming along again. So tuck the gift of faith into the mental stockings of my people.

CREATIVE IDEAS: Big new industries create prosperity. Look what the automobile industry did! There must be a great many other ideas that would make for better living and greater happiness. We need some new industries. Perhaps during the long months while you've sat smoking your pipe in your igloo, waiting for Christmas, you've thought up some dandy new ideas. Just see that those ideas are dropped into the mental stockings of my captains of industry, will you?

THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT: I've watched every Christmas come and go. Always right around Christmas time, people are kind and loving and cheerful. They are looking outside themselves and trying to make others happy. And then . . . after Christmas, they slip back into the old rut. I know there are those who say that Christmas has failed. How can it have failed? How can it have failed when it has never been really tried? All my worries would be over, and I would be the happiest planet in the universe if you would just give everybody the gift of the year-around Christmas Spirit. That would solve all our problems.

Well, there's the list!

If I'm asking the impossible, old-timer, it's only because you have an age-old reputation for doing the impossible. So, I'm counting on you!

Sincerely yours,
THE WORLD.

Give an all-year gift for Christ-

Picture Taking on Little Creek Ferries

Picture taking is popular on the Little Creek Ferries because there are so many ideal photographic situations. Here, a husband takes movies of his wife on the stern of the S. S. POCAHONTAS. Six ships in the ferry fleet steam between Kiptopeke at the southern tip of Virginia's Eastern Shore and the Norfolk area on U. S. 13. In addition, the Chesapeake Bay Ferry District operates six crossings a day between Kiptopeke and Old Point Comfort. Motorists enjoy the cruise because it affords an opportunity to relax for an hour and a half away from the wheel without losing any time.
